CONDITIONS OF CREDIT

Without prejudice to any rights, which the company may have at Law, the following conditions shall apply:

- 1) The granting of credit to the client will always be in the sole discretion of the Company and should such credit be granted, the client undertakes to sign all the necessary documentation without delay.
- 2) The client undertakes to pay the account promptly within 30 [thirty] days nett from date of statement. Should the client be in arrears with such payment, or part thereof, all amounts owing by the client to the Company will immediately become claimable and payable to the Company at its discretion and the interest will accrue thereon as set out in paragraph 3 below, irrespective of whether such amounts are due at that stage.
- 3) The client undertakes to pay interest on all overdue amounts at a rate of 2.5% above the ruling prime bank rate to be capitalized monthly.
- 4) A certificate of the manager, accountant, auditor and/or official concerned with accounts of the company which shows the amount due shall be substantive proof in any legal action of the amount, plus interest due by the client to the Company and shall be considered as a legal document in any legal proceedings.
- 5) The Company retains the ownership of any goods the Company may sell and forward to the client until such date as the client pays the purchase prices in full thereof in which event the ownership in the goods will then only pass to the client. This retention of ownership is not only binding between the Company and the client, but also on third parties and the client hereby undertakes to advise such third parties concerned thereof accordingly.
- 6) The client however empowered to dispose of the goods, of which the ownership is retained by the Company, in the course of business, and the Company will not be empowered to retain its ownership of such goods sold bona fide purchasers should the client fail to make payment for such goods. The client may however under no circumstances dispose of goods by way of notarial bond, cession or in any other manner, until such time the client obtains the written consent of the Company.
- 7) Should the Company institute any legal proceedings against the client for the recovery of any amount and interest due, the client hereby consents to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate's Court in accordance with the provisions of Section 45 of the Magistrate's Court Act, 23 of 1944, as amended.
- 8) The client accepts that the Company shall only entitled to exemption from Value Added Tax as stipulated in the Value Added Tax Act if purchases made by the client are for Direct export to countries other than the TBVC states. The client understands that Value Added Tax will be reflected separately on quotations and invoices.
- 9) The client hereby expressly renounces the benefits arising from the legal exception "non nuerate pecuniae", "non causa debiti, errore calculi" revision of accounts and no value received and declares that the client is acquainted with the meaning and effect thereof and that the client understands the same.
- 10) This agreement constitutes the entire contract between the Company and the client and no variation thereof shall be binding unless reduced to writing and signed by both parties.
